

Interview with BFM

Written by Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah
Monday, 21 November 2011 12:13 -

Last week, I had a pre-recorded interview with BFM radio which was aired on Thursday November 17, 2011. I talked about Amanah and shared my views on PPSMI. The podcast is available for download here at BFM website.

People has been asking me about the timing of recently approved AMANAH. As a matter of fact, I did talk about it in last year's interview with BFM which was aired a day after Merdeka day. I also share my thoughts and views on many topics and issues

- corruption, rule of law, the opposition, UMNO, the mass media.
- the possibility of BN as a multi-racial party, a new multiracial NGO and the role of Perkasa.
- Petronas, education, oil royalties, the Petroleum Devt Act, the NEM and affirmative action.

The podcast of the interviews on BFM are available for download: 1. Malaysia: Wherefore Art Thou?

- Date: Sept 1, 2010.
- Duration: 54m 41s (MP3 Format - Link to download)

2. Not Leaving Umno \(Yet?\)

- Date: November 17, 2011
- Duration: 11m 21s (MP3 Format - Link to download)